

ITALIAN

Build a foundation of cultural literacy, global awareness and language proficiency with the Bachelor of Arts in Italian at Temple University.

The Italian program is home to adventurous and curious individuals who seek to learn about other cultures, break down stereotypes and explore the world.

The major takes an interdisciplinary approach to studying the Italian language and culture, and students form a deep appreciation for cultural perspectives within the Italian-speaking world. Advanced language instruction helps you develop competency, fluency and retention in Italian. Literature and history coursework emphasizes Italy's cultural, global and national identity, while cinema and media studies coursework illuminates the history, events and people that have shaped the country.

ACADEMIC OFFERINGS

- BA in Italian
- BA in Italian Studies
- Minor in Italian
- Certificate in Italian

IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCES

Immerse yourself in Italian culture and society through one of Temple's study abroad opportunities, including Temple University Rome. Gain a broad view of the country and its unique perspectives with classes offered in art, architecture, language and international business.

Students of Italian not only study abroad, but they can partake in fellowship and teaching programs as well as internships in Italy. Italian majors and minors are highly encouraged to apply for the Marthe Lavallée-Williams Study Abroad Scholarship and Grants, which offers generous financial awards to support language study in Italy for one semester, one academic year, or one summer.

A CLOSE-KNIT COMMUNITY

Our small class sizes allow faculty and students to build a rapport with each other. In turn, we devote a great amount of individual attention to every student throughout their college career, leading them towards success. We understand their talents and potential, and work with them to find opportunities that best fit their professional and academic aspirations.

Juniors and Seniors can apply for the Marthe Lavallée- Williams Academic Scholarship, which provides financial support to Italian and Italian Studies majors.

WORLDLY CAREERS

Italy is one of the top economies in the world and in the European Union. Thousands of American companies do business with and have offices in Italy. The country is a leader in fields including auto manufacturing, culinary arts, electromechanical machinery, graphic design, furniture design and shipbuilding.

Italian majors graduate with foreign language proficiency and excellent communication skills, as well as a global understanding and sensitivity ideal for a diverse array of international career options.

Students are prepared to enter graduate school or begin their career in a number of fields, including communications and media, diplomacy, education, international affairs, public relations, journalism, speech therapy and translation.

At the College of Liberal Arts(CLA), students have access to more than just great classes. Our urban setting provides COUNTLESS EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES outside the classroom like internships, research endeavors with faculty and community engagement. These experiences EMPOWER OUR STUDENTS to continue developing their skill sets, pursuing their interests and growing into tomorrow's leaders in challenging and rewarding career paths.

INTERSHIPS

Internships impart valuable skills that are extensions of those taught in the classroom. CLA is committed to enhancing students' professionalism and assisting them in obtaining internships. Visit the Joyce K. Salzberg Center for Professional Development for internship resources dedicated solely to liberal arts students.

COMMUNITY-ENGAGED LEARNING

Community-engaged Learning (CEL) is a collaboration between students, faculty and community stakeholders to address a community-identified need.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

Undergraduate research opportunities at CLA range from developing an independent project to partnering with a faculty member or working with a university lab or group.

STUDY ABROAD

Studying abroad can be one of the most transformative experiences you'll have as a college student. Temple University students have many opportunities to study abroad through our international campuses in Rome and Japan, foreign exchange programs and external partnerships.

DEADLINES

NOVEMBER 1:

- Application Deadline for Spring
- Early Action First-year Application Deadline for Fall

FEBRUARY 1:

- First-year Application Deadline for Fall
- FAFSA Financial Aid Priority Filing Deadline

MAY 1:

- First-year Housing Deposit Deadline
- First-year Tuition Deposit Deadline

JUNE 1:

- Transfer Application Deadline for Fall

WHAT YOU SEE ISN'T ALWAYS WHAT YOU PAY

That's why the College of Liberal Arts is committed to keeping tuition low—in fact, we are one of the few colleges within Temple University that does not charge a tuition differential. Our priority is to help you graduate with less student debt.

For more information on Temple University tuition and financial aid, visit Student Financial Services at sfs.temple.edu

CONNECT WITH US

Have more questions about the College of Liberal Arts? We have both virtual and on-campus opportunities for you to connect with CLA enrollment staff, faculty and current students.

College of Liberal Arts Visit Center
Gladfelter Hall, Ground floor
(215) 204-6337
visitcla@temple.edu

APPLY NOW

Visit admissions.temple.edu to get started.

TRANSFERRING?

Whether transferring has always been a part of your plan or you suddenly find yourself ready to make a change, the College of Liberal Arts offers flexibility to help you accomplish your goals as efficiently as possible.

To learn more about transferring to Temple, please visit liberalarts.temple.edu/transfer or email us at clatransfer@temple.edu.

liberalarts.temple.edu

