Criminal Justice Mentoring Center

What Is Offered:

- Provide help with Criminal Justice courses or GenEd classes that involve Criminal Justice curriculum and are taught by Criminal Justice Faculty.
- Professional assistance – Assist individuals who are interested in graduate school by offering advice on how to choose the right school, and editing Curriculum Vitas and personal statements.
- Help students who are writing papers by aiding in formatting, organization, editing, and topic brainstorming. Also, we will demonstrate how to find appropriate peer-reviewed articles for papers or projects.
- Take referrals for appropriate campus services – such as the Disabilities office or Writing Center.

What Is Not Offered:

- We will not do students’ work or provide answers to homework or exams.
- Mentors will not write papers for students.
- Academic Advising.
- Mediation between students and faculty members.
- Participate in filing grievances or grade reconciliation.
- Provide help on take-home exams.
- Assist students in classes that they are not attending.
- Provide extra review sessions for exams.
- Help students study for professional admittance exams such as the GRE, LSAT, MCAT, etc.
- Administer make-up exams.
