

Curriculum Vitae

Rebecca Anne Barnes
tuk53845@temple.edu
(570) 417-6535

EDUCATION

PhD., Spanish Literature, Temple University, forthcoming 2024.

M.A., Spanish Literature, Temple University, May 2021.

B.A., Spanish, The Pennsylvania State University, 2019.

B.A., French Literature, The Pennsylvania State University, 2019.

B.A., Linguistics, The Pennsylvania State University, 2019.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistantship, Temple University, 2019-2022.

SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarly papers presented

“Nationless States and Stateless Beings: The politics of identity and citizenship in Claudio Mir’s Mondongo Scam and Cheech Marin’s Born in East L.A.”

ASLE 2021 Virtual Conference Symposium, Emergence/Y, on the panel “Migrant Ecocriticism: Diasporic Environments,” July 26th 2021.

“Predators, competitors, and parasites: Recognizing ecophobia in Horacio Quiroga’s short stories”

STREAMS: Transformative Environmental Humanities Conference, Stockholm Royal Institute of Technology, August 2021 (postponed due to COVID-19).

25th Annual Graduate Student Conference “Survival Trouble: Anthropocene, Anticolonialism, and Ecologic Resistance.” City University of New York, department of Latin American, Iberian, and Latino Cultures, April 2020 (postponed due to COVID-19).

“Lengua Palenquera and Spanish: What keeps them apart? Which specific elements of language structure influence a bilingual’s perception of code-switching?”

Graduate Students of Language at Temple (GSOLT) graduate conference, Temple University, April 2019.

The 2nd Canadian Linguistics Annual Symposium (CLAUSE), McGill University, March 23rd, 2018.

LEADERSHIP

Panel Chair for “Diasporic Environments” panel, ASLE 2021 Virtual Conference Symposium, EmergencE/Y, June-July 2021.

Grants and awards

Graduate

Temple University Presidential Fellowship, 2019-2024.

Undergraduate

Schreyer travel grant to present at the Second Annual Canadian Linguistics Symposium at McGill University, 2018.

Schreyer travel grant to present at the Undergraduate Linguistics Symposium at East Stroudsburg University, 2018.

Erickson Discovery Grant, 2018.

The Kroll Undergraduate Research Award, 2018.

Student Engagement Network (SEN) award for undergraduate research, 2018.

The Mr. and Mrs. Berry award for undergraduate research, 2018.

Richard Zimler Undergraduate research Award in Portuguese, 2017.

Partners for International Research and Education II (PIRE II), 2017.

The Mr. and Mrs. Paterno Award for academic merit, 2016.

Partners for International Research and Education (PIRE), 2016.

ADDITIONAL TRAINING

CAT certification for online teaching, Online Training Institute (OTI), October 2019.

Website

<https://rebeccannebarnes.weebly.com/>