Fellowships and Awards

- Criminal Justice Excellence Award, Spring 2023
Description: Awarded by the Temple University Criminal Justice Department to a member of the graduating class for outstanding academic performance throughout matriculation. The students must demonstrate excellence in scholastic achievements, as shown by graduation in the top five percent of the class and a minimum GPA of 3.75. $600 award.
- Temple University Liberal Arts Undergraduate Research Award (LAURA), Spring 2023
Description: LAURA scholar selected to work under Dr. Steven Windisch on a research project titled “Nefarious Net Nazis: Analyzing the Social Function of White Supremacist Humor.” I served as a sole subject expert coder, analyzing over 700 samples of extremist social media content. Developed a codebook to thematically identify four district categories of interest. With these data, I presented our research findings at the 2023 ASC conference with a focus on how humor functions as a tool for violence in a white supremacist population. This then developed into a published book chapter on open-source data with Drs Steven Winsich and Michael Logan in The Oxford Handbook of Open-Source Research in Criminology and Criminal Justice. $1500 award.

- Dean's List 4x (Undergraduate)
- Dean's List 2x (Community College)
